The Relentless School Nurse: Creating a Healthier World for All Children

The school nurse is an advocate and a health care provider. During this Naratil Family Health & Human Values Lecture Series presentation, Robin Cogan, the 2017 Johnson & Johnson School Health Leadership School Nurse of the Year, reviews the impact of The Woodhull Study on school nursing practice and introduces nursing media competencies in a way that is applicable to every nurse. Explore the mechanics of effective writing and how to craft messages that are relevant, valuable and promote a nurse's professional perspective creating a healthier world for all children. This event is free and open to the community.
